TRAPS WOMEN IN MUD FILLED DITCH

Five Persons Injured When Machine Skids on Ice and Goes Into Hole.

CAR IS TOTAL WRECK.

Four Taken to Hospital After Midnight Accident on Pelham Parkway.

Automobile parties who had gone for late suppers to Sormanti's roaduse. White Plains Road and Pelham Parkway, rushed from the place early this morning when a terrifion the road outside was follewed by screams of women. Chauffeurs waiting in their cars outside he inn joined the rescuers, and all ushed one hundred yards down the oad to an overturned automobile recting in the water of a ditch feet below the road's level.

From the wreck a man was crawl ing, and on the ground nearby lay emseless. From under the car amothered calls for help and he shricks of women. The man, who ras dased, staggared to his feet and Main me! There are two ad a man under that car." A score of men and women go their bands on the car and by conerted effort raised it, while other bed beneath it and drew out anti's where telephone calls so sent to Fordham Hospital for ministross. The man who had inspired the resons told his resource ow it had happened.

MUNICO MOTORISTS CARED FOR BY DINERS.

He was Paul J. Moranto, a con with an office at No. 2 Wall twenty-six years old. Anles Capt. John F. Tappin of

is. 41 St. Nicholas Terrace and the the social dancer. third, Miss Emma Lowe, daughter of WOMEN WILL GO IN FOR IT ALL Lowe, proprietor of the Bronx Mr. Morante said he, the Dunbars and Miss Lowe diped at Hunter Island Inn. and there had met Mrs. Tappin, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur McLean, wife of the proprietor of the inn. It was nearly midnight when they started back and Morante ent, sleep and breathe tango more invited Mrs. Tappin to accompany violently than ever. Reforms often neau while Dunbar rode in front with cat will jump. But whatever the ef-Plains avenue, proceeding at ordinary speed, when a big limousine appeared in front. Morante was forced over toward the ditch. When he essayed to get back to the middle of the road. a sheet of ice and the car skidded. To the cursory observer the main Before he could right it, it slid off the difference is that of position. This is road, fell into the ditch and toppled When Dr. Muth and Dr. Sinkind old style tango: arrived from Fordham Hospital they found that Mrs. Tappin was badly hand lightly against the lady's back, touching her with the finhurt. Besides a broken rib and many ger tipe and wrist only, or, if preferred, with the incide of the cuts and pruses she had internal in cuts and oruses she had internal injuries. Mrs. Dunbar sustained a broken nose, was cut and brused all over the body and suffered greatly from shock. She had been almost drowned while she was pinned under the car. Miss Lowe had her collarbone broken, but her condition was not serious. Morante and Dunbar had escaped with bad shaking up.

had escaped with bad shaking up,
the hospital, where it was said Mrs.
Dunbar and Mrs. Tappin were in critical condition, though the physiclans were hopeful they would recover. The gentleman's left hand and forearm should be held up in the air parallel with his body, with the hand extended, holding the lady's hand lightly on his palm and between the thumb and forehis hold must be firm and yet loose

PIG TISSUE IS USED TO MEND A GIRL'S JAW the body, in order and comfortably."

Child Undergoes an Operation and Faces a Second to Overcome hinge made from tissue taken from a pig already on one side of her jaw. Della Shoemaker of Washington, D. C. eighteen months old, is being prepared at the Union Protestant Infirmary for a similar operation, which is expected to make her deformed jaw

The child's jaw was of solid bone from birth, making it impossible for her to move it. In the first operation the surgeons made an incision and the bone of the jaw where the new "joint" was to be made. Then they rounded out one end of the bone and made a socket in the other. piece of pig tissue was then inserted between the bones to prevent their growing together and the wound losed up. The same process will be

VERTURNED AUTO In Dancing the Denatured Tango the Couple Keep Two Feet Apart

And the Woman Assumes a Touch-Me-If-You-Dare Look of Destance SPREADS RU

dance one ever heard of, before the Innovation, the dancing partners at least touched each other's hands. But a goodly two feet of floor space separates the trippers of the touchless tango. It is the ideal dance for BUTCHER'S ENEMY icebergs, surgeons in antiseptic raiment and militant pers of the touchless tango. It is the ideal dance for For as I looked on at Castle House yesterday after-noon, it seemed to me that one salient characteristic LET LOOSE ARMY have excellent poise, a strong sense of musical rhythm and a considerable experience to be able to dance in perfect accord with her male partner while entirely unguided by him. Stage dancers have often varied their steps in this fashion, but I doubt 'f it comes easily to Battle of Felines Over Feast

> Wynberger, proprietor of the Brighton Beach butcher shop at No. 72 James street, left the place in ap-

Disturbed Peace of Neighborhood.

Shortly before 11 o'clock last night closed doors of the butcher shop. The in.

And they gathered in front of the at that time of night, should be makwere feasting on choice bits of chick- the floor. en. They were scrapping with pork chops. They were playing ninepins with saumages. And in the middle of the floor a real scrap was in progress. THREW CATS THROUGH THE OPEN TRANSOM. When Mr. Wynberger left for home he left the fanlight over the door aiar so that the sweet air of James street might blow in and keep his pork chops and chickens and lambies don't-touch-me effect. The regular tango music, with its slow beat, is used.

One reason for the difficulty in describing the tango is that tango exshoulders were held squarely without perts rarely dance twice alike. There young persons who had taken lessons wriggling. The upper part of the body are no set steps, as in the polks or young persons who had taken lessons remained firm, and practically all two-step. "You must follow the from them, and I couldn't imagine remained firm, and practically all two-step. "You must follow the from them, and I couldn't imagine remained firm, and practically all two-step. "You must follow the music," Lays Mr. There were no hoppings; only a Castle, "and to do that you must really feel the music-get into the casional kick, though this latter was swing of it, as it were. It all depends usually confined to the maxixe. Dan- on the music how and when you take the various steps."

Miss Elisabeth Marbury "dropped into werse" the other day and lyricized the Innovation, as follows: "The New Tango with courtly grace Determines solemnly the pace, With glide and slide and stately time THIS tango seems a thing divine. No rough, uncouth, nor ugly dipping: No bungling, awkward, clumsy tripping The Castles dance with all decorum The modern dance is work, not play learn to dance is really serious

And far removed from aught delirious." The Innovation is assuredly many removes from the Turkey Trot and fresh for the Saturday trade. S enemy of the butcher-be is sure that it was no friend-gathered up the feline visitors of the garbage cans and shoved them into the shop through the open transom. Mr. Wynberger has two cats of his own trained to eat no meat, which h. always leaves in the shop over night pushed through the fanlight was

The first peripatetic pussy that was the butcher shop. Then they got

The door. They shoved Tommy Laura, ple ple order when he went home at a young man of James street, o'clock last night. The front win- through the fanlight. A dozen cats men and eight strong citisens of James street rushed into the breach. wild cries rang out from behind the The policemen wouldn't let any more > Scat! Oh, yes, and leave that good stuff. What do you mean the restauthe meat hooks. They jumped on top corners with bits of chicken and choice lamb chops. But leave the shop? Not vet.

One of the largest balls of the season atreet, will be that to-morrow evening of the Evening Telegram Circulation Employee's Association. The association numbers several hundred employees of the Evening Telegram and New York Herald. Every member of it has for weeks been working hard to make the affair a great success.

Tango Teachers Unite in Suits Against Prelate Louis Ottman Got a Glimpse When Wife Appeared on Porch Top.

Ottman on a cold January night that appearance on Union street, Brooklyn, however, created quite as much

New Yorker, returned to town rather unexpectedly to hear that his pretty young wife whom he had married only three years before, had been in the company of Daniel J. Junk, jr.

ment at No. 904 Union street, Brook-and went with them to the Union street house. It was after 1 o'clock when Kiernan and Poth got Mr.

IS NOT MISSING

Was Sent Back to School a Week

Ago After Runaway Visit to His Mother.

A long distance telephone message to-day to The Evening World from said that Gipbs Mansfield, fourteen years old, son of the late Richard

Under French Law Archbishop of Paris Erred in Denouncing Dance and May Have to Pay Damages—Bishop of Orleans of Lady Godiva and Mrs. Evilyn Once Paid for Like Of-witnesses described in the Supreme Court before Justies Blanchard, was that the modern Godiva did not have a horse. Mrs. Ottman's nocturnal PARIS, Jan. 24 .- Prof. Stillson's suit or $20,000 against the Archbishop of Bocese from dancing it, promises to sad to suits at wholesale by dauging

Estimates of the sums they will de mand already reach $300,000. They are doing all they can to create the impression that the churchmen are in impression that the churchmen are in That night—it was Jan. 31, 1918—a conspiracy against them. If they he assembled two athletic friends, busy with the best there was in the can win there will be more money for Matt Kiernan and William J. Poth, them in collections from the church than in teaching the tango.

It is the general opinion that suits for damages may be successfully Junk to open his door by a subterprosecuted. The Archbishop of Ordows were filled with hanging chick- scrambled over Tommy when he fell leans once issued an order warning he saw September Morn filting into tached from the ens, inviting cuts of steak, pork chops, to the floor. He turned up the lights the faithful to shun the dancing the parior. Then Ottman entered the and run sausages, lamb and mutton, all in and got a pair of pliers with which masters, and when he was sued he court.

Lawyers who have been consulted dow Mrs. Ottman in -er-well, as desay that the French statutes do not justify an ecclesiastic in an utter-like was acreaming "Police!" "Help!" ance of public disapproval in matters affecting the livelihood of any class of persons. If such a law can be applied to a denunciation of the tangen the chances of a defendant in be applied to a denunciation of the grant induced the hysterical woman tango the chances of a defendant in a court would be slim.

The attitude of the Archbishop of Paris is combative. He has shown no disposition to retract anything. His accusers hoped he would settle with them out of court.

The dancing masters are making the officer.

The dancing masters are making with the course of the porch in a parcetysm of rage and grief until the good sergesnt feared for her future health.

"Can you describe her clothing?" asked the attorney.

"That is not possible, sir?" replied the officer.

When Mrs. Ottman was quieted and raiment spread over her shoulders

The dancing masters are making common cause, and will employ the best lawyers to conduct the fight for them.

Meanwhile, no action will be taken against Protestant clergymen and Jewish rabbis who have expressed opinions publicly concerning the tango identical with the Archbishop's. Should the Archbishop be fined, the judgment in his case will be used to pummel the others into cash settlements. Protestant churchmen and the Jews are throwing all their influence on the side of the Archbishop. ence on the side of the Archbishop.

Lay observers think the dancing MANSFIELD'S SON masters are playing the court game for profit only. All outward signs

NO RECONCILIATION. SAYS MRS. GOELET

"Had There Been a Chance I Would Choate's School, in Wallingford, Conn. Not Have Come Here," She

Asserts in Daytona.

DAYTONA, Fla., Jan. 24.—"No, indeed. Never. If there had been I would not have come here," declared Mrs. Elise Whelen Goelet when asked if there was any possibility of a reconciliation between her and Robert Goelet, from whom she is seeking a se divorce.

When asked how long she intended remaining in Florida she said she "really did not know." Mrs. Goelet seemed keenly interested in what the New York papers had to say of her divorce sait.

According to the story, young Mansfield had set out with only 50 cents in his pocket to visit his mother, who was reported to be in Faria, and had been missing for two weeks. He was sur posed to be wandering about in New York rying to leave on some therald, Times, Sun and Tribuse ship. How the story started no one silveree sait.

Kibble Crystal Palace Connerv atory in Glasgow Smashed

-Watchman in Peril.

to have been carried out by suffragettes, to-day viri

The two passenger do train were ploked up

A Message

All Builders Should Read

If you have Real Estate of the The Big Sunday Wor

Now, in my private opinion, this tango is aseptic and antiseptic enough it several weeks ago, also many other Malformation. BALTIMORE. Jan. 24.-With anything more chemically pure. It certainly is not the dance which has Broadway restaurants, and during which the dancers are poulticed together from collarbones to shins. THE NEWEST DANCE IS PRUD-

ISH ENOUGH. But the innovation is a real snowbird of a dance.

In the newest tango the man does not put his arm around his partner's waist, he does not rest his hand upon her back or shoulder, he does not cradle her elbow in his paim, he does not touch even the tips of her fingers. He stands about two feet away from her with his hands in his pockets, as every small bey has been taught he should never stand in partner, her hands are placed on her hips with the fingers wide spart and her elbows skimbs.

of the Innovation, as compared with the old-style tango, is the greater difficulty of the former. A woman must

Ordinary Husband and Wife Can Keep Step

by the Power of Auto Suggestion."

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

Castles danced at Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish's dinner party. It's purer than the walts or the two-step, or even the dear old Virginia reel. In every other moralists-if they can do it.

THE MORE.

On this very account the innovation, if it is generally adopted, will doubtless increase the dance mania.

"The gentleman should rest his wrist and the back of the thumb.

the body, in order to dance gracefully

It's so purer than the purest, this Innovation Tango that the Verner

Incidentally, if this dance really catches on, I prophesy the appearance of side pockets in the tango women will take more twenty-fivewomen will take more twenty-lives white costume with a loose, full over-dollar lessons, will devote more hours skirt hanging from her waist nearly to terpsichorean practice, will talk, down to her knees. Presumably there have curious and unanticipated by-products—you never can tell how a for her hands suddenly disappeared vation. A side pocket is a perfectly purse of the In- logical development.

novation Tango, Theology is sure to each other's even and, as if connected by invisible wires, their feet gilde and turn in the parallel movements New, just what are the points of New, just what are the points of of the dance. Together they go for-difference between the tango of yes-ward, retreat or turn to the side. how Vernon Castle describes the ways conscious of the twenty-four proper position for the dancers of the dancers-much more conscious, apparently, than are the dancers them-

"That dance is for soulmates," I heard a man comment laughingly. "Ne mere, ordinary husband and wife can keep in step by the power of auto-sugges-

The only time when I detected the slightest contact between Vernon Castle and his wife was in one movement when she was dancing almost back to him. I think her shoulder just grazed his chest during those "He must know how to guide, and instants when it was impossible for her to see the motion of any part of enough so that the lady can move easily to the side positions. The two his body. As she turned, however should stand far enough away from she veered quickly away again.

each other to allow free movement of DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE OLD AND THE NEW.

In the earlier tango done at Castle House there was nothing which could for anybody. I saw the Castles dance be described as contortion. The movement came from below the hips. masqueraded as the "tango" in the pointing with the heel and an occers were specially cautioned to avoid the low, exaggerated dips.

In the Innovation Tange the steps seem little changed from those used in the first version. As before, the dancers make use of a slow glide and their kness are kept bent. The body is held a bit more stiffly in the solo steps than when the partners are lightly embracing one another. There is necessarily a special effort to keep the steps of the same length and to turn the knee at the same time, and with the same amount of force. The head is held high, almost at an angle of defiance, completing the stand-off-andpounced upon by the fatthful feline guards of the pork chops. They grabbed him and sought to shove him into the sausage chopper. other felines came through the fanlight. It began to rain cats. The guardians of the garbage cans made short shrift of the tame tabbles of cop on peg post, the roundsman on POLICE WITH CLUBS CHARGED THE CATS.

Cats were swinging themselves on the scales, maybe weighing the bit of meat they were going to take home. Brighton market. They couldn't be- Cats were negotiating with chickens, lieve their eyes. Every cat which, and others were trying to wreck the ing the rounds of the garbage cans my. Cats were scrapping with the in James street was in the shop. They two faithful felines in the middle of "Scat!" cried the coppers. rant's closed? The kittles kited up to of the icebox. They ran away into

The coppers went after them with their night sticks. Two brooms in the shop were pressed into service. One hardy citizen of James street grabbed the tail of a cat perched up on a meat hook. They took the man to the hospital with his face all bleeding and cut. The felines fought with the ferocity of the jackals of the jungle. It wasn't every night that a feast like this was opened up to them, and they were in no hurry to go back to the garbage cans.

But human intelligence and physical endeavor conquered in the end and every howling, meowing, spitting, scratching, fighting feline was finalidriven into the street and James street was restored to its natural quiet. And the sad part of it was that Mr. Wynberger's two tame tab bies were swept out with the rest.

"I don't know who did it." said Wynberger, the butcher, this morning. "Yes, it might have been a rival. I don't know." Circulation Men to Give a Ball.

given in Webster Hall, in East Eleventh